W. G. Stewart left for the southern part of the territory Monday evening.
See the extra heavy Random mixed men's underwear at Brannen's, $1 a suit.

Mrs. George Babbitt left on Monday last for Cincinnati, where she goes to visit relatives.

See Brannen's line of fine shoes prices are low. We have a dandy $2.50 ladies' shoe.

Miss Belle Switzer has been confined to her home for the past two weeks, a sufferer with the grippe.

E. J. Babbitt has been appointed administrator in the matter of the estate of Samuel Dittenbarger, deceased.

Miss Wood, who has been engaged in teaching school at the Pump district, left for her home in Kansas Monday.

Robert Ferguson attended the Masonic ball and had a way up time, and is treating himself for a cold as a result.

Milton Katzenberg, traveling salesman for Lowenthal & Meyers, Albuquerque liquor dealers, was in Flagstaff last Sunday.

A. T. Cornish began cutting ice Tuesday morning. The ice on his ponds is now eleven inches thick, and of a good quality.

Piano and organ, Miss L. H. Silvernail, teacher, Williams, Arizona. Particular attention given children and new beginners, 35 cents per lesson.

The Odd Fellows will hold a public installation in the new Norris building to-morrow evening. After the ceremonies a social dance will be indulged in.

S. A. Roberts, father of Mrs. T. J. Colter, arrived from Albuquerque last Thursday evening. Mr. Roberts is not enjoying the best of health, and hopes to be benefited by our climate.

A number of young ladies pass the afternoons in coasting on the hillside west of town, and in the evening hie themselves to the ice ponds, where skating is indulged in until late hours.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Los Angeles Marble and Granite Works, which appears in this issue. This firm seeks trade, and takes the proper means of asking for it.

THE SUN force was remembered on Christmas day by Max Salzman, in the shape of some splendid "red licker." Max has the thanks of the force; may you live to remember the printers on many Christmas days.

The Phoenix Gazette says: John Ayers left Flagstaff several weeks ago with his horses to return to Phoenix, and has been overdue here for two weeks. His friends cannot hear from him and fear foul play.

William Ashurst and Vina Powell have gone to Los Angeles and will remain there several weeks taking in the sights of the "boom city." They went last Saturday, assisting in the care of the cattle shipped by Brannen and Ashurst on that day.

Among the many beautiful calendars presented to THE SUN is one from the Arizona Central Bank. It is a beautiful piece of work, with a photo-engraving lithograph scene, and makes a suitable ornament for either office or home. All are invited to call at the bank and get one of these souvenir calendars.

Christmas morning two teams belonging to R. A. Gibson took fright at two cars bumping together on the side track in front of THE SUN office, and ran away. One of the teams ran into the sidewalk in front of this office, where a portion of the wagon now lies. Both wagons were demolished, but no injury was sustained by the horses.

GIVEN AWAY!

GREAT HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY.

LADIES HAVE YOU SEEN IT? SEEN WHAT?

PERFECTION FLOUR BIN AND SEIVE,

An Article that Every House-keeper Should Have.
A Perfect Receptacle for Flour.

An Aerator and Sifter. It is way ahead of anything you have in the house, Except the Baby! Made of Tin, the best material for the purpose.

MERITS OF THE BIN.

It aerates the flour, preserving it from mold or mustiness. It will keep flour or meal dry and free from dirt, mice, rats and cockroaches. Fresh flour or meal always on hand. Flour enough for a baking can be sifted in a moment. It will pay for itself in a short time by saving of labor and waste. Avoids the necessity of reaching into barrels and sacks. It can be kept on pantry table or shelf; sifted flour always ready. The reel inside the bin agitates the flour, making it very light, and improves the quality. By using the Perfection Bin you do away with pans, sieves, scoops, etc., necessary when using flour or meal in the old way. Take no other, buy the best and cheapest. None genuine unless marked "Perfection" and Sherman, Tangenberg & Co., Manufacturers, Chicago. Size to hold 50 pounds.

JOHN SANDERSON, FLAGSTAFF.

Theo. Shuffin, a former Flagstaff boy, is now in Denver, and doing well.

The display of Mexican Silver Filigree, at Cook & Lee's store is "out of sight."

A. F. Elliott has gone to Winslow, where he has accepted a position with the railroad company.

Japanese silk in plain and embroidered at 50c to $2.25 each, also a big assortment of mufflers. See them at Brannen's.

THE COCONINO SUN is receiving many compliments on the excellence of the work turned out from its job department.

E. J. Babbitt will go to the Navajo reservation to-day for the purpose of appraising the estate of Sam Dittenbarger, deceased.

We learn from the columns of the Journal-Miner that our old friend George Hoxworth ate his Christmas turkey in Prescott.

Mrs. J. A. Pitts accompanied her cousin Miss Effie Ashurst to her home in Corning, Cal., on Sunday. Mrs. Pitts will be absent several weeks.

A man named Nelson, whose mind is unbalanced, created a disturbance at the Christmas tree at the Methodist church Thursday night, and was placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Fairchild.

At Toledo, Washington, on the 25th inst., Edward Neal, of Toledo, and Mrs. Minnie A. Neal, of Flagstaff, were united in marriage. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ramsey, of this city.

G. A. Bray left on yesterday's delayed east-bound passenger train for Boston, where he will join his wife. The "whist club" is how short one member, and Mr. Bray's seat will have to be filled by proxy.

Brannen, Finnie and Brannen and Wm. Ashurst shipped six car loads of cattle to Los Angeles on Saturday last. The cattle were sold to Los Angeles butchers. P. J. Brannen had charge of the shipment and delivery of the cattle.

Frank M. Payne, the Bellemont ice man, has a large force of men at work on the ice ponds of Walter J. Hill, one and one-half miles south of the station, putting up ice. The ice is clear, and about thirteen inches thick. He expects to put up 5,000 tons.

William Goodsell, of New York, is visiting J. Guthrie Savage for a few days on official business. Goodsell and Savage were engineers in the Army of the Potomac, war of the rebellion. They are taking in the pros and cons of a signal station on our peaks.

E. E. Ellsworth, Dr. Cornish, John Vories and Dr. Colman, Jr., were a party of gentlemen who visited Canyon Diablo last Saturday in quest of cottontail rabbits. They succeeded in killing 107 of the nimble-footed little animals, and say it wasn't a very good day for rabbits, either.

Ashton McBecker of Salt Lake City, was in Flagstaff Monday. Mr. McBecker together with Mr. Rotter drove across the country with a lot of cattle which they are ranging in the Buckskin Mountains. They intend purchasing several hundred head of cattle in this vicinity. Their headquarters are at Canyon Diablo.

CHRISTMAS IN FLAGSTAFF.

How the Holiday Week was Observed by Our People.

Christmas has come and gone. The elaborate preparations made by our people for the observance of this festive holiday were complete, and the day was one of general rejoicing. On the evening preceding Christmas many families celebrated, and the joyous, pleasant laughter of children greeted the ear of the visitor to every home which Santa Claus had invaded, leaving behind him the decorated tree and numberless toys. A trip through the residence portion of the city and a glance through the front windows from the street were a certain assurance of this fact.

The merchants had done a thriving business and very little if any Christmas stock will have to be carried over. The festivities began here in earnest on Thursday evening, when a Christmas tree was had in the Methodist church, a concert was given by the Fort Wingate military band at Babbitt's hall, a Christmas sleigh was had at the Presbyterian church, and numberless private trees and entertainments were had.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

The decorations of the interior of this edifice and the Christmas tree brought more mirth and happiness to the gathering of young people and formed a more fitting introduction to Christmas than did the Christmas-tree celebrations of a private character. Christmas is not more than half a Christmas without a Christmas-tree, with its strings of snowy pop-corn, gilded nuts, fruits, ornaments and presents, that is, as far as the children are concerned, and it is pleasant to note that this part of the festivities were not overlooked by our people.

Beside the tree, a huge chimney had been erected in one corner of the room, from which Santa Claus made his appearance, to the intense delight of the little ones. Before the distribution of gifts began a musical program was rendered, many appropriate carols being sung by the members of the Sunday school. Every child present, (and many who were not present), was remembered, each one getting some token appropriate to the occasion.

THE BAND CONCERT.

Arrangements had been made for a band concert by the Fort Wingate military band at the new Babbitt hall on the eve preceding Christmas, and it proved to be a most entertaining affair. The band, composed of nine pieces, under the leadership of Prof. Matson, arrived on a delayed train from the east, and delighted a fair-sized audience with their selections.

THE PRESBYTERIAN EXERCISES.

At Masonic hall, exercises and a Christmas sleigh were had on Christmas eve by the Presbyterian church.

A large sleigh was beautifully decorated and laden with many handsome and useful gifts. Santa Claus was present and delighted the young people with his antics. Songs and Christmas recitations were had, and altogether the occasion was one not to be soon forgotten.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.

On Christmas day, at Babbitt's hall, the recently elected officers of Flagstaff Lodge, No. 7, A. F. & A. M., were publicly installed by J. W. Sharp, past master, assisted by J. Guthrie Savage, acting grand marshal. The officers installed are as follows: D. F. Hart, W. M.; Robert H. Ferguson, S. W.; J. H. Hick, J. W.; S. S. Acker, Treasurer; Max Salzman, Secretary; Rev. Robert Colman, Chaplain; J. W. Sharp, Marshal; John Rosebaugh, S. D.; T. E. Pulliam, J. D.; Marvin Seal, Tyler.

Quite a number of people were present to witness the ceremonies, which were very impressive and well carried out.

THE CHRISTMAS BALL.

The event of the week, for which grand preparations had been made, was the ball given at Babbitt's hall Christmas night under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge. The large new hall had been beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and evergreens, and presented a most inviting appearance to the merry dancers, of whom there were about 170 couples. Music was furnished by the Fort Wingate military band, and was the best ever heard in Flagstaff—at least this was the universal verdict of those present.

At midnight the dancers adjourned to the lower floor of the building, where a sumptuous repast was served by Mine Host Coalter, of the Bank Hotel. At the conclusion of the last number on the program of dances several "extras" were had, and it was nearing daylight when the dancers adjourned for their respective homes.

Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Perry, Winslow; Mr. and Mrs. Con. Meers, Williams; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yancy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moffit, Mrs. Annie Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Peck, Shelby, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Elliott, Mrs. Alvord, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Francis, Mrs. Anna Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ross, and Mrs. A. T. Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vail, Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay, Winslow.

Misses—Mollie Beasley, Lillie Beal, Olmstead, Dukes, Stella Yancey, Fannie Sloan, Winslow; Rosa Hochderfer, Rosa Colburne, Holbrook; Ida Gibson, Maggie Grunnells, Williams; Nellie Hawkins, Winslow; Della Powell, Retta Beasley, Effie Sterner, Winslow; Emma Hochderfer, Eliza Beasley, Lola Woods, Colton, Lulu Graham, Lizzie Hoffman, Frances Moser, Lanna Bills, Sarah Jones, Miss King, Winslow; Etta Powell, Tilly Hoffman.

Messrs. J. H. Bishop, Ed. Brophy, F. F. Flickinger, T. A. Brophy, H. Heide, C. M. Holmes, J. R. Nichols, J. Richter, J. C. Corrigan, Winslow; A. B. Crooks, J. C. Phelan, Robert Johnson, G. W. McAdams, Charles Hawkins, Williams; F. W. Payne, James Avery, Bellemont; C. H. Nöfer, Holbrook; George Schaaf, Charles Kellar, Al. Gregg, B. F. Norris, Burt Cameron, John H. Hicks, J. W. Weatherford, C. L. Clark, M. S. Beal, R. W. Bell, C. F. Ruffner, George F. Campbell, J. Diamond, Charles Crothers, W. E. Hochderfer, G. A. Bray, George H. Cook, B. M. Spencer, Frank Beasley, Frank J. Fouke, H. Z. Zuck, W. H. Campbell, N. Lewis, Hugh Campbell, J. T. McIntire, Charles Graham, J. O. Jones, C. E. Howard, Jesse Gregg, E. H. Jones, J. D. Bell, Frank Livermore, W. D. Tinker, J. M. Marshall, W. H. Wheeler.

All things taken into consideration a very pleasant time was had in Flagstaff during the Christmas holidays, and the many enjoyable events will be remembered by those participating for some time to come.

In conclusion, THE SUN wishes to return thanks to the people, on behalf of Mr. Matson, director of the Fort Wingate band, for the courteous treatment received by the members of the band. Mr. Matson says nowhere has the band boys been so royally entertained as in Flagstaff, and they look forward to the time when they may again visit us.

John Cusick, the escaped jail-bird, is once more behind the bars of the Coconino county jail. Our readers will remember Cusick's recent break for liberty, which for a time seemed successful. The officers gave chase, but no trace of the wily switchman could be found, until it was learned that he had gone to Los Angeles. From there he was followed to Omaha and back, being at last captured in a Los Angeles theater. Sheriff Francis returned to Flagstaff with his prisoner Tuesday afternoon.

Presbyterian Church—Jan. 3, 1892. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Morning service at 11 a. m.—Subject of Pastor's sermon will be, "Lessons from a Jewish New Year's Day," after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered to which Christians of all denominations are cordially invited. Young People's Meeting at 6:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m.—Subject, "This year also." All welcome to all our services.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. There will be several additions to the membership of this flourishing church. We congratulate the Pastor and people on their successful work in our growing town.

Mrs. J. E. Palmer and sons returned this week from Ogden, Utah, where she has been visiting for the past few weeks.

Pastry Without Butter.

Light, flaky and digestible pie crust and all kinds of fine pastry can be made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder without butter or with one half the usual portion, if preferred, or with a small quantity of lard or other shortening as desired. Pie crust made in this way is more wholesome and digestible besides being more economical and easier prepared in addition to saving all the butter if desired. One-third the flour is also dispensed with, and the crust is rolled that much thinner, the raising qualities of Dr. Price's Powder swelling it to the requisite thickness. Those who enjoy the appetizing qualities of the delicious home made pie will rejoice to know this secret.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only powder that contains the white of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

$100 Reward. $100.

The readers of the SUN will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

P. J. BRANNEN, Flagstaff, Ariz.

Happy as a Jay-Bird,

Who? Why Bray, of Course. I am plodding along and taking life just as easy as I can. Am selling good straight goods for cash at a moderate profit, and I find it a first-rate way to do business and keep my trade. I don't aim to become rich in one year. Have no particular extra bang-up bargains to offer; no old stock on hand; no wife at present (I am sorry to say) to blow in my wealth (she is visiting her relatives east.) No book accounts to worry over. If there is anything that will fret a merchant and keep him full of grief, it is old book accounts against Tom, Jack and the Devil. Tom's account is good when it rains; Jack's when you get it, and the Devil's is no good, rain or shine.
